

*Bear Creek Lakes
Reading List
2019-2020*

Sept. 17

The Lake House by Kate Morton

This is about an eleven-month-old child, Theo, who vanishes without a trace after his family held a huge party on their lakeside estate in Cornwall, England.

Oct. 15

Women Rowing North: Navigating Life's Currents and Flourishing As We Age by Mary Pipher

The author explores ways that women can cultivate responses to the challenges they face as they grow older, such as ageism, misogyny, and loss.

Nov. 19

The Handmaid's Tale by Margaret Atwood

When one reads this book, one can imagine how it might happen. It is unique, shocking, and thought-provoking.

Dec. 17

Educated by Tara Westover

This is a truly inspiring memoir about how a young woman from rural Idaho, having no formal education, earns a doctorate from Cambridge.

Jan. 21

Book Sharing

Please bring one of your favorite books and tell the group what you liked about it.
(Optional)

Feb. 18

Where the Crawdads Sing

Kya, known as the "Marsh Girl" in a small North Carolina coastal town, has survived alone for years after her family abandons her. She gets accused of killing a local young man, and her troubles really begin.

Mar. 17

The Hamilton Affair by Elizabeth Cobba

The true story of Alexander Hamilton and the Treasury Department he originated.

Apr. 21

The Feast of Love by Charles Baxter

and

This book is about all kinds of love told through stories by a man who has love struggles himself looks around him at the struggles of his neighbors.

May 19

Lost in Shangri-La by Mitchell Zuckoff

This is a true story about a plane that crashes into a caveman-like tribe that had never been discovered before.

June 16

Then She Was Gone by Lisa Jewell

Ellie Mack, a perfect teenager loved by all, suddenly disappears just as her summer vacation was beginning.

Meeting time in Stewart Hall – 10:00 AM, except for December and June – 10:30 AM. Our December meeting includes a carry-in luncheon, and we go out to lunch after our June meeting.